Dedication

James would like to (again) thank his extremely patient and supportive family (boys, Dad is looking forward to spending more time with you). Also, major props to Steven and Carsing for your assistance with this book. Steven, for "stat revisions beyond counting"; Carsten, for "nudging and pathod" (in a patient manner) to keep things rolling on track. Also, thanks to Josh and Richard for your continuing condition and support. Last, but not least, a HUGE "thank you" to Ross Babcock and FASA Corporation—we all really appreciate your support and faith in allowing us to take on the Earthdawn property and subject leto our vision and tender ministrations.

Richard would like to thank James Flowers for introducing him to Earthdawn, and his wife Rewa and his family for putting (i) with all the time I spend at the computer.

Carsten would like to thank the German Earthdawn community for its outstanding creativity and Carsten would like to thank the Geran Earthdawn community for its outstanding creativity and support that make the fans of this game as unique as the game itself. This came a long way—keep on gaming folks!

Josh 'Lore Merchant' Harrison would like to thank Carsten 'Dammi' Damm for his feedback and moral support, James 'Jimmy Jim' Flowers for the opportunity to contribute to the game he loves, and the fans—old and new—who make it all worthwhile.

Steven would like to thank Eugene James Sherman for introducing him to Earthdawn in the first place, and his many players throughout ten years of Earthdawn campaigns.
