Welcome to The Edge!

How to Use This Book

Extreme Edge Publishing, a subsidiary of Extreme Edge Incorporated, produces a periodical known as Extreme Edge. To the uninformed, this magazine is pure fluff, appealing to people who like to see scantily clad young women, extreme sports, and guns.

To the informed, this magazine is a life-line of vital information for people who are fighting for the future and destiny of all mankind. The CEO of Extreme Edge Incorporated, the enigmatic Kale Fleigh, and the CFO, his brother, the equally enigmatic Peter Blazes, have been fighting the good fight since childhood. Now, they take their experience as champions of the downtrodden, defenders of the planet's future, former Army Rangers, and students of some of the world's most powerful heroes, and pass that information on to those who are willing to listen.

If you're someone who realizes how dangerous the Earth of the year 2016 really is, then this magazine is meant to save your life, and the lives of everyone you know and love.

Here we present a "boiled down" version of an issue of Extreme Edge Magazine. You never know... you might just need to know some of this stuff. We're just sayin'...

This is a supplement for HOT CHICKS: The RPG. You will need the core rulebook in order to play.

The information in this edition of Extreme Edge magazine can be used in any Hot Chicks game - the equipment presented here is commercially available, and the obligatory "Page 5 Girl" is a potential contact and/or ally for Player Characters.

Other assorted bits and pieces of information may or may not be hints and clues to vast plots and adventures, depending on what the GM would like to do with them.

Extreme Edge magazine is a means of mass communication for several influential figures in the world of Hot Chicks, and their editorials are more-or-less either grave warnings about imminent danger or advice from people who have been there and done that. Information presented in this magazine is considered canon in the world of Earth in 2016.

Karrie Stuart isn't your typical hipster blog-mistress! Whether its her tireless efforts on behalf of charitable organizations, her volunteer time working with inner city youth, or her occasional pursuit of exotic dancing, this eighteen-year-old has done more work for her community than most people twice her age! Add to that the fact that she's a protege' of Extreme Edge's Ori Velasquez, and Karrie's future is pretty bright indeed. Just a word of warning... if you don't like pink, and you don't like sparkles, better back off now!
